

Lochnell Castle & Estate. Argyllshire

An historic coastal estate
and private family home.

The estate is located in Argyllshire, just north of the port town of Oban, on Scotland's west coast.

Lochnell is a family home with eight guest bedrooms and six bath and shower rooms, all with stunning west highland views.

Lochnell is the perfect base for exploring the west coast.

Full access to the library and drawing room allows guests to relax in style.

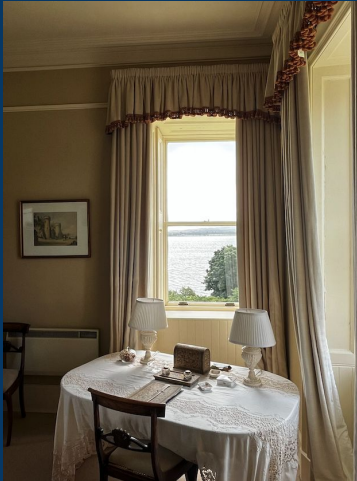

The large family kitchen is ideal for group breakfasts and lunches.

The dining room is the perfect setting for celebratory dinners.

Eight guest bedrooms and six guest bathrooms are available for exclusive use.

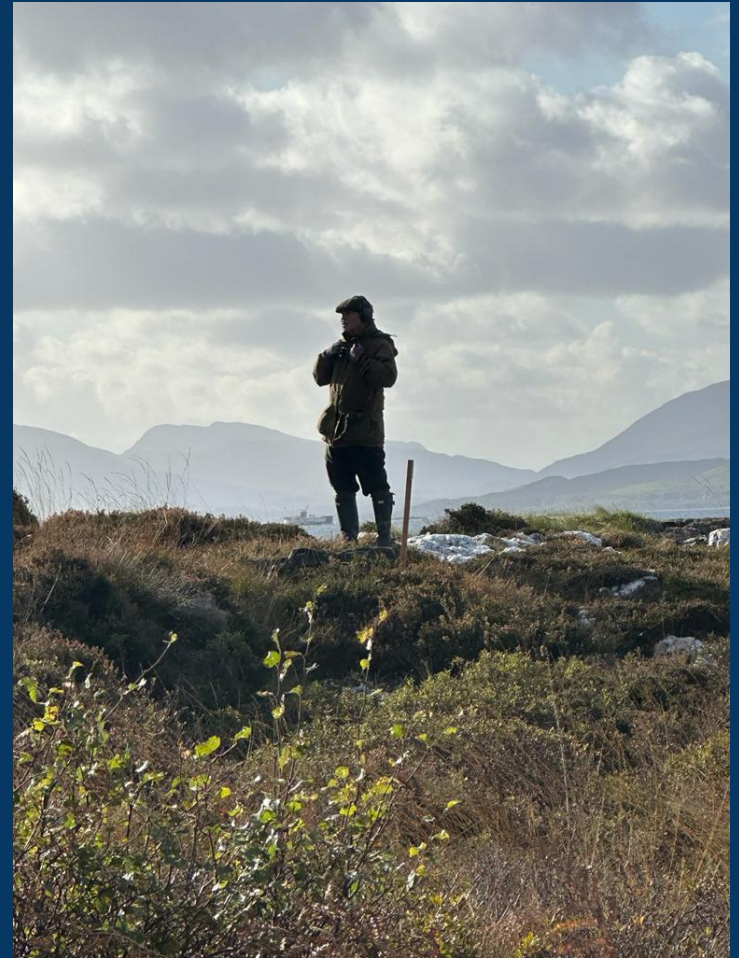

The wider estate is truly seclude. Perfect for exploring, having beach barbeques, hiking and watching the eagles, otters and seals, to name a few friendly neighbours.

We offer
access to some of the most scenic stalking and
partridge
shooting in Scotland.

Many of our guests
combine both
during their stay at Lochnell.
